What You Will

So when our College Days are o'er and we go forth from college halls, we may still have here inscribed in permanent form, (lest we forget,) a
"nee-kil" of who you are and of some of the things we did—to keep these memories green and to cheer us on our way.

Miss Floyd, College President, and the home club man, College President, have been personally and carefully acquainted with Miss Floyd and her devoted life and sincerity of purpose. She was a woman of excellent disposition and a true and loyal member of our Church.

Mr. Schriest was a Christian young man with a bright future and his going is a great loss to the College and to the State. We are informed that the situation at Elon is well under way and there is no indication for alarm. The need of the students who have been sick has come first. They have had the best medical attention and personal nursing of the students and faculty. President Harper has been caring for those seriously sick in his home and that means that they have had the attention and care of a real home.

Praises, Elon, Unto Thee

OLD praises now be,
Dear Elon, unto thee—
Our dear E. C.
Fair daughters every one,
Thy valiant, noble sons,
Praise from thy victors won,
Praise, Praise to thee!

Mother of mighty souls,
There would our tongues extol.
Our hearts are there.
We love thy time-worn walls;
We love thy sacred halls;
On us thy spirit falls
With touch divine.

Father of spirits free,
Bless thou our dear E. C.
With thy rich grace.
Keep all thy children true;
Make strong to dare and do,
Bring them life’s battles through,
To see thy face.

*Composed by Dr. A. B. Kendall, Burlington, N. C., set to the tune of America, and sung at Elon Celebration of American Christian Convention, Springfield, Ohio, Fall of
The epidemic of Spanish Influenza has held the country in a titanic grip for the last two weeks. In all the colleges throughout the State many students have been sick and several have died. Elon, like the other institutions, has suffered. Two deaths have occurred there. Miss Annie Floyd, Alabama, Alia, and Mr. Clarence E. Seehriest, Thomasville, N. C., were the victims. Miss Floyd’s body was carried to her native state and home church last week, accompanied by Dr. N. G. Newman, College pastor, and others. We knew Miss Floyd personally and can speak of her devoted life and sincerity of purpose. She was a woman of excellent disposition and a true and loyal member of our Church. Mr. Seehriest was a Christian young man with a bright future and his going is a great loss to the College and to the State. We are informed that the situation at Elon is well under way and there is no indication for alarm. The needs of the students who have been sick has come first. They have had the best medical attention and personal nursing of the students and faculty. President Harper has been caring for those seriously sick in his home and that means that they have had the attention and care of a real home.

SYNOPSIS

ACT I. Room belonging to Morgan and Fairfax. (Evening). Towel Fairfax has been elected Toastmaster of the Sophomore banquet. Bill Morgan, his roommate, is deeply in debt, and also madly in love with Cynthia Reed, daughter of Professor Reed. In a stormy interview Professor Reed forbids Morgan to enter his home. To drown his sorrows Morgan goes to a cafe with a friend. During his absence, Henry Reed and Tom Ripley, two Freshmen steal into the room and carry Fairfax away as prisoner to Professor Reed's home. Upon their return Morgan and his friend find a note scribbled by 'Towel' which tells them he is hidden at Reed's. Morgan decides to enter the Reed home as a servant, and get Towel.

ACT II. Library at Professor Reed's. (Next Morning). Buzzer finds Towel in the cellar where the Freshmen have concealed him. Henry brings him to secrecy. Morgan disguised as a girl secures a position as maid. Later he reveals his identity to Cynthia, whereupon she becomes angry. Unfortunately Buzzer overhears the conversation and tells Henry who the girl really is. Morgan earns from Buzzer, however, that Towel is in the cellar. Mrs. Reed catches Professor Reed kissing the maid, and fires her. Morgan decides to take Towel away in a trunk, but the Freshmen substitute Buzzer instead. They put Towel under a sofa, from whence he is rescued by Cynthia.

ACT III. Room at the Grand Hotel. (The same evening). Prof. Reed follows Morgan to the hotel and accuses him of kidnapping Buzzer. Morgan, thinking Towel is in the trunk, refuses to open it. Professor goes for a key. Morgan opens the trunk and finds—not Towel but Buzzer. General confusion—Morgan does not know where Towel is; neither do the Freshmen. They suspicion Cynthia, but she refuses to talk. She smuggles Towel into the hotel, and at the fitting moment produces him. Professor is reconciled, Cynthia won, Morgan reformed, and the Toastmaster sits at the banquet.

Land where my fathers died
Land of the pilgrim's pride.
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.
My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
The home and brave.

The Church's one foundation
In Jesus Christ the Son of God; She is his new creation. By water and the word; From heav'n he came and sought her, To be his holy bride. With his own blood he bought her, And for her life he died. 'Mid toil and tribulation, And tumult of her war, She waits the consummation Of peace for ever more;

President Harper is now a member of the Teacher Training Committee of the International Sunday School Association. It will hold a meeting in Cincinnati on August 18.

President Harper has filled speaking engagements since May 26 at Siler City, N. C.; Waverly, Va.; Chase City, Va.; Wilmington, N. C.; High Point, N. C.; Christian Chapel church; Bethel church; Wake Chapel church; Christian Light church; Danville, Va.; Reidsville, N. C.; Salem Chapel, Sunday School Convention; Wentworth church; Piney Plains church; Suffolk, Va.; Norfolk, Va.; Va. Beach Chautauqua and School of Methods; N. C. and Va. Christian Endeavor and Sunday School Convention; Ramseur, N. C.; Valley-Virginia Central Conference; Beulah Sunday school Convention; Educational Rally, Youngsville, N. C. He has not been at home but one Sunday since commencement. He spoke four times at the World's Christian Endeavor Convention, Chicago, tho not present, Rev. H. R. Clem reading his addresses for him. He was to have attended the Craigville, Mass., Chautauqua, but gave two addresses nevertheless, Dr. W. G. Sargent reading them in his stead. His address before the Eastern Va. Sunday school Convention, held at Windsor, was in his absence read by Rev. H. E. Rountree.

Mrs. Harper's father, Mr. J. H. Walker, and his sister, Mrs. M. L. Holton, and her little daughter, Miss Betsy, were her guests the past week. Mrs. Holton, a member of the class of 1909, is to spend the spring and summer in High Point, or rather at her country home near there.

On the Fourth of July, President Harper is to address a Sunday school and young people's gathering to be held at Lucama, N. C.
The entire community was visibly saddened when it became known here Sunday that Dr. Atkinson is to be away from his work and associations here for a period of six months to be spent in Asheville in absolute rest. Dr. Atkinson has invested his life and talent for the upbuilding of the Christian Church. All will pray for his complete recovery, which is assumed by his physicians.

Mrs. Atkinson too is quite unwell, but the physicians are confident she will soon be well, living in the environment of her home, to which she is so devoted. They will both be at Elon this week, the Dr. Atkinson will leave immediately for Asheville. Let the Sun family pray for these two worthy servants of the Church and of the King.

The Editor is at home now resting a little and getting things ready for his vacation at Asheville, to which place he will go this week. He expects to fish and meditate and meditate and fish and soon be well. He takes this method through the Supply Editor to express his hearty appreciation of the scores of letters of sympathy that have reached him. He would like to answer all, but cannot. How kind of our friends to remember us in our afflictions. And his brethren of the press have been so gracious in their expressions of sympathy. It is almost worth while to be sick to have your friends remember you so kindly. We thank all.

That Rev. Dr. J. O. Atkinson is decreed by the doctors to take absolute rest for six months on account of impairment by overwork will be heard with sincere regret by his friends in every corner of the State. He is pastor of the local church at Elon College and the gifted and learned editor of THE CHRISTIAN SUN at the same place. He is a member of the North Carolina Press Association and knows and is known by practically every editor in the State, and he is very popular among the fraternity and is beloved and esteemed by all of them. He has just returned from John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, and hence comes the decree for rest. At the end of this period this consoling hope is held out that he will be completely restored. His rest period will be spent at Asheville. The Dr.'s friends will also regret to learn that his excellent wife is not very well. She is expected to be well soon.—Alamance Gleaner.

We are sorry to note that Dr. J. O. Atkinson, a prince of a fellow, has been ordered by Baltimore specialists to take a long rest for his health. Dr. Atkinson is a true prince among men. His heart is full of love for his fellow men and the hearts of his fellow men are full of love for him, and we hope he will soon be restored to health.—Durham News.

Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson arrived on the Hill on Saturday last, somewhat jaded by their journey, but happy and cheerful. Dr. Atkinson is to go to Asheville early this week. He says he will be well and at his post by June. His physician in a private note assures us of his recovery. The Sun family will pray to that end.

Dr. Atkinson is steadily improving at Asheville. His physician is quite hopeful of his total recovery.
Dr. W. C. Wicker, '93, enjoys the distinction of being the only man in North Carolina to be a member of the Lesson Committee of the International Sunday School Association. In June he attended the meeting of that Committee in connection with the Chicago session of the International Sunday School Association.

Dr. W. C. Wicker has travelled N. C. from "Dan to Beersheba" this summer on behalf of the Masonic fraternity, of which he is one of the State's most prominent members and most honored as well as capable.

Dr. W. C. Wicker has been quite busy with Masonic lecturing during the holidays. Change work is play according to this professor of Psychology. Gladstone said the same. So does Dr. Staley.

Dr. W. C. Wicker occupied the College pulpit at the 11 o'clock hour Sunday. He delivered a splendid sermon. His theme was Christ, God's Unspeakable Gift.

Dr. W. C. Wicker preached at the Graham and New Providence churches on Sunday for Rev. John G. Truitt. Dr. Wiicker is to give a lecture on Thursday evening of this week on The Psychology of Play.

Dr. Wiicker gave a splendid faculty lecture on Thursday on "The Philosophy of Play as a Factor in Education. He showed wide acquaintance with the authorities and delighted his audience. On Sunday he preached in the Burlington M. P. Church.

Brother D. M. Tyrrell, father of Miss Grace, a Student Volunteer of the College, died Friday of last week. Dr. Wicker conducted the funeral. The sympathy of the entire College is extended.

Dr. W. C. Wicker was toast-master at a big Masonic Banquet in Greensboro Saturday night.

The Christian Endeavor service was conducted Sunday evening by Dr. W. C. Wicker, and was characterized by the large number who gave personal expression to the meaning of Easter and the Resurrection in their own Christian experience.

Miss Annie Laurie Wicker gave an Expression Recital at the Glendale High School on Saturday evening. The Greensboro Daily News spoke in most complimentary terms of her.

The Psiphelian Entertainment comes this year on Thursday the 20th. One of its important features is to be an original play written by Miss Annie Laurie Wicker.

Dr. T. C. Amick and wife are summering in the classic halls of the University of Virginia this vacation.

Dr. T. C. Amick has spent the summer in mathematical research at the University fathered by T. Jefferson, Esq.

1915

Dr. T. C. Amick of the Faculty preached in the M. P. church at Burlington Sunday.

Dr. Amick delivered an address at the Honlee High School Friday evening. Principal Penland said it was the best ever given there.

Dr. Amick next Sunday is to speak at Southwood church, near Liberty, in the morning, and in the afternoon at the Friendship Academy.

Dear Elon*

HOY tender mother, who has led through devious ways
My wayward footsteps, now I give praise.
May thy glory ever spread abroad from shore to shore.
And thy sons and daughters lead thee evermore.

CHORUS:
Elon, dear Elon, hallowed gem on memory's page;
Elon, fair Elon, glorious are thy ways.
They long hast guided me to kingship pure and true;
And thou still in visions vast and new.
With thee ever tend me, guide my steps through storm and sun.
In the ways of duty, till life's work is done.

CHORUS:
Elon, dear Elon, gentle guide of all my youth;
Elon, fair Elon, guide me into truth.
And may the glory and the name of thy house
Lead many others to this shrine of fame.
And may love untarnished, ever be rendred
Thou dear Alma Mater of the great and free.

CHORUS:
Elon, dear Elon, I would know at thy pure shrine;
Elon, fair Elon, be the glory thine.

*Composed by Dr. T. C. Amick and to be sung to the tune of Juanita.
Miss Bessie Urquhart, after learned pilgrimages in New York, Cambridge and Toronto, has been planning for "the girls" at her Hensall, Ontario, home.

Miss Urquhart gave an informal embroidery party in honor of Mrs. T. B. Womble, soon to move to High Point, on last Thursday. "Eats" and "talks" were also enjoyed by the ladies.

Miss Urquhart's Expression pupils gave a most excellent matinee recital on Friday afternoon. Without disparagement of former recitals, it is but fair to pronounce it the most satisfactory program of this Department in recent years. The participants were Misses Mary Randolph, Parmelia Guynn, Eunice Wellons, and Lorena Garrett with Mr. Charles N. Whitelock. On Friday afternoon of this week the other pupils of the Department will give another matinee recital.

Miss Urquhart's Expression Class, the remaining members, gave a most delightful matinee recital on Friday afternoon. The participants were Mr. F. M. Dunaphant with Misses Celestia Gulley, Betty G. Taylor, Rhita Thomas, Eula Hayworth, and Hattie Baxmore.

MR. W. J. COTTEN, A. B., valedictorian of the class of 1915, a studious, ripe scholar for his years, becomes assistant in Latin. Mr. Cotten's splendid record as a student and as a man while in College entitled him to this distinction and nobody doubts he will prove a valuable acquisition to the teaching staff.

Mr. W. J. COTTEN has been resting at Dendron, Va.

Mr. W. L. Kinney becomes Student Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Kinney is thoroughly devoted to the religious and spiritual life of the College and of the Y. M. C. A. He can be counted upon to give an efficient leadership and direction to the important functions of this office.

Miss Ida Dunlap becomes president of the Y. W. C. A.; Mr. W. B. Fuller, president of the Y. M. C. A.; and Mr. C. B. Riddle, president of the Christian Endeavor Society. "Nuff sed."

Everybody will rejoice that Dr. W. P. Lawrence will resume his duties as Dean of Men with the opening of the Fall Term, and that Miss Beule Urquhart has escaped the Canadian conscription for the British army and so will continue to fill with her well-known and appreciated satisfaction the responsible post as Dean of Women.

Mrs. Florine Peace becomes matron of the West Dormitory. Herself an Elon product, having received her education here and having served the College so acceptably well as housekeeper of the building, Mrs. Peace's selection for this important post will readily commend itself to all as eminently wise and appropriate.

Capt. H. E. Jorgenson, the popular and efficient teacher of the Commercial Department, becomes College Bursar next year. This announcement will please everybody.

A very enjoyable "Watch Party" was given the "left-overs" at the West Dormitory on the 31st of December. Games and refreshments, with merriment, occupied the day till 11.05 p.m., when a tender, sweet devotional service was conducted by Dr. Wellons. Mr. F. P. Dunophant read "The Dying Year"; Miss Urquhart read "The New Year"; Dr. Wellons led in prayer. Thus the New Year officially began at Elon. May it be a good year!

Mr. C. B. RIDDLE becomes manager of the Young Ladies' Co-operative Boarding Department. Mr. Riddle will put this institution on a strictly business basis and hopes to reduce the expenses for all purposes there this session to the extremely low minimum of $60. Mrs. Sadie Jones remains as matron of this department, but, being relieved of the business features of her work there, will be able to serve the young women even more acceptably than in former years. She needs no recommendation, her splendid services speaking for themselves.

Dr. H.T. Floyd. Auburn, Ala.
Miss Annie Floyd, Anniston, Ala., was called home last week by the critical illness of her mother.

Sunday evening at 7:30 Rev. W. W. Elder, at the Ele­moncy of 1910, Elmo's Alumnus who is a U. S. N. Chaplain, made a splendid address on The Worth-While Things in Life. He urged the congregation, which gave the atten­tion, to seek first the Kingdom of God.

Last week was crowded with good things as no week this term. And chief among these good things were visits by many of our friends, a wide circle of friends who will be glad of his great opportunity for faithful and efficient service for the Christian ministry. Rev. P. L. Duke, E. T. G., was here last week by the courtesy of the student body gave a splendid program. Mr. H. E. Jergenson presided and Mr. H. M. Riddle kept the minutes. Mr. W. P. Odum gave a near-human recitation. Miss M. C. Pease and T. C. Pease created in eloquent style, handling such themes respectively as Determination and The Education That Counts. A scholarly debate on The Wilson Preparedness Program featured the celebration. Favoring it in truly belligerent fashion appeared Chas. N. Whitehead and Zeb Vance. Opposing it and successfully in the minds of the three wise ones that sat in judgment were Messrs. W. E. Mac­lay and R. H. Rainey. Mr. Ralston was award­ed the orators medal. The marshals were Messrs. W. E. Deal, W. G. Allen, and B. A. Took.

Rev. W. W. Elder, a graduate of Elon College, who has been in Y. M. C. A. work for some time in Brooklyn, N. Y., has been appointed, by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, a Chaplain in the Navy, his commission dating from January 22. Rev. Elder is enthusiastic over the prospect for his life's labors and will render faithful and efficient service for the Master. "Bud" Elder was very popular as an Elon student, is a near relative of our good Elder, Rev. W. W. Elder, Rich­land, Ga., has a wide circle of friends who will be glad of his great opportunity for Christian service.

Rev. W. W. Elder, since his graduation en­gaged in Y. M. C. A. work, Navy Branch, has just been commissioned chaplain in the United States Navy.

Rev. W. W. Elder, recently appointed chaplain in the United States Navy, is a happy visitor on the Hill for a few days. He will soon take up his work as chaplain on the U. S. Battleship Maine.

Rev. W. H. Fuller of the student body gave a splendidly helpful evangelistic discourse at the evening service Sunday. Brother Fuller is destined to be one of our most useful young ministers.

Mr. W. J. B. Truitt won the orator's medal in the Oratorical Contest in the Philologian Society on Friday evening. The other speakers were: W. L. Monroe, T. S. Parks, Jr., T. C. Canvey, H. J. Fleming, and J. E. M. Canley. The judges were Dr. W. C. Wieler, Dr. W. P. Lawrence, and Prof. N. F. Brannock.

The Senior-speaking for class representatives at Commencement occurred on Saturday evening. The following were chosen for the occasion: Rev. T. T. Bradford, Mrs. E. A. Crawford, R. F. Brown, W. L. Kinsey, Miss Blanche Tongue, and Miss Annie Laurie Wicker.

The evangelistic campaign, which is entirely in charge of students and one in response to earnest prayer, is going under good headway. Rev. H. S. Smith is doing preaching, and it is well done. A band of personal workers is busily engaged for the merit. Will all the Elon family pray for rich blessings to College and community?

Prof. J. H. Moring, Morrisville, N. C., is leading the singing for the evangelistic campaign now in progress. He is a grand old gospel singer.

THE ELON MEETING

Last week the Sus announced that the evangelistic campaign voluntarily inaugurated by a band of students in answer to prayer and under their control was making progress. Well, it continued to progress, and when closed last night (Sunday), every heart was overflowing with Christian joy because of a great work of grace.

There were a few left who did not take the outspoken stand for the Master, but they are not despairing of the personal workers will keep right after them, and will feel assured of victory.

Dr. Newman, who has been here since the College opened, says there was never such a midnight air was musical with the voices of the new-born babes of the Kingdom.

Recreation rooms, offices, dormitory rooms, private homes became the sanctuaries where prayer winged its flight to God. And He heard.

The leader in all this mighty upheaval was a member of the Junior Class, Rev. H. S. Smith. Brother Smith had the united support of everybody and was greatly blessed with power as he delivered his messages—twelve of them. Rev. R. F. Brown, a Senior, led the personal workers. Prof. J. H. Moring, Morrisville, N. C., a veteran of the old-time religion, led the singing. There was unity of purpose, and in the unity there was strength.

God has greatly blessed our College and the community. Praise be to His name!

A beautiful scene was witnessed Sunday night at the conclusion of the evangelistic campaign, when Rev. H. S. Smith asked all those who had taken a new start for the Master to take their stand on the rostrum. Fully 150 persons responded. It was good to be there.

Uncle Wellons was able to attend three of the evangelistic services just concluded. He took part in each meeting he attended. His very presence was a benediction. His asthma is not entirely gone, but he is better.

The good effects of the recent revival are abundantly evident on every hand. Daily chapel is more delightful. Prayer-meetings have become a fixture in the dormitories. The Christian Associations and Christian Endeavor have taken on new life. The church services are deeply spiritual. It is good to be here.

Saturday evening the Freshman-Sophomore debate occurred in which the Freshmen were victorious, in the opinion of the three wise ones who sat in judgment on that occasion. The query was: Resolved—that the United States should now give independence to the Philippine Islands. The Sophomore speakers were Miss Gertrude Minniear, Warren, Ind., and Mr. F. C. Lester, Sumnerfield, N. C. The Freshman debaters were H. T. Floyd, Roanoke, Ala., and Zeb. V. Young, Wake county, N. C. The president of the occasion was Mr. J. M. Bradford, who in a very happy introductory speech made everybody feel at home. The Secretary was Miss Hattie Wright.
