Acknowledgment

The Family wishes to express to their many friends their heartfelt appreciation for every act of kindness and every expression of sympathy during this time of bereavement.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now he set me free.

The Obituary

*"Weeping may endure for a night,
but joy cometh in the morning"*

Psalm 30:5

Mrs. Dorothy Lee Spinks, was born April 16, 1935 to the late Beatrice and Scofield Headen. She departed this life on August 7 at Wesley Long Hospital. The time arose for God to descend His angels down from Heaven above to bring one of His loving saints home.

Dorothy commonly known at "Dot" was a lifelong resident of the Ramseur community. She was gracefully noted for her spunk and style of dress. As a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and child of God; she loved to sing in the choir and strike a tune on the piano. Dorothy was a faithful member of Lambert Chapel Church where she gave God all the honor and praise.

Those left to cherish her memory are Joseph Spinks of Asheboro, NC, Michael Spinks of Gibsonville, NC, Roger Spinks, Gwendolyn Spinks, Cheryl Spinks, and Eddie Spinks of Ramseur, NC; two brothers, Jesse E. Headen of Washington DC, Edward Milliken of Greensboro, NC; three sisters, Hazel Alston, and Margaret McSwain of Ramseur, NC, and Grace Spinks of Seagrove, NC; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, sisters-in-law; daughters-in-law; and many friends. Among the deceased awaiting her arrival to reunite again are; her late husband, Rosecoe Spinks; brothers, Paul Headen, Lincoln Headen, Eugene Headen, and Kelly Headen; sisters, Hilda Mae Farris and Nellie Mae Brooks.
